

Keep Connected

Salvationist
August 2008 issue
This issue focuses on youth and children's ministries

Six Young Leaders to Watch

They've got a fearless faith, a global perspective and a burning passion for the lost. Find out how God has gifted young people across the territory
(Lieutenant Alison Lublink)

Taking Risks

More socially conscious than previous generations, today's young people aren't afraid to get involved and make a difference in their world
(Lt-Colonel Donald Copple)

Shooting For Success

The goal of sports ministry is not numbers, but discipleship
(Michael Burge)

Stand By Me

Young people are searching for meaning, purpose and faith. What role will you play?
(Zoe Fay)

Plus all our regulars including Officer Insight, Talking It Over, Wildfire and Just Between Us
Visit Salvationist.ca for the latest news and information

Keep Connected

Faith & Friends
August 2008 issue

First Things First

Mark Teixeira's faith makes him solid, whether running the bases or safe at home

Power Outage

Was Liz Curtis Higgs being punished for putting work before family?

Drawing Strength

Dennis Hewitt turned his life around, thanks to The Salvation Army, pastels and paint

Look for these articles in the August Faith & Friends:

- Living in Mongolia, Tseegii had never heard of Jesus. Who was He?
- In Swing Vote, coming to theatres this month, the outcome of the U.S. presidential election hinges on Kevin Costner
- For those confined to their homes, Meals on Wheels delivers more than just hot food
- And more ...